To this task the musicians stopped to make way for hi coming out to the Far East he had resided for some years in Spain, so that on his arrival in the Philippines he was already familiar with his occupation as the representative of a firm doing business with the planters necessitated his travelling in all parts of the islands and penetrating where the mere sightseer would have found no inducement to proceed. Besides this, Mr., Foreman is a Roman Catholic, and has doubtless enjoyed from intercourse with the clergy and been allowed fuller access to the records of the convents than would probably have fallen to the lot of an ordinary Protestant In the Philippines Spain possesses a magnificent Colony, rich in natural resources, and with a population which, if lazy, is apparently not difficult to govern. Under a more liberal régime the country could not have failed to make rapid progress, but the policy pursued has been one of squeezing and emlesiastical domination. Things are altering to some extent now. The Archbishop and his attendant priests no longer on entering the church on the high festivals walk over the Spanish flag as a sign of the superiority of the ecclesiastical to the civil power; and notwithstanding priestly opposition the railway has been sanctioned and a section of the pioneer line is already running. As to the morality of the priests Mr. Foreman tells us that it is only natural that there should be a book. number of black sheep among them, and he gives arrying military workmen and implements to instances in which they have shown thom-Wladiwostock, to be employed in constructing selves in anything but a favourable character. 20th May. BEFORE ME. A. G. WISE.

THE "TAI-ON" CASE. Chan U Fai, master of the Pen Kee shop, was harged with having made a false declaration with regard to the ownership of the steamer rai-on on the 6th April. The Acting Crown Solicitor (Mr. A. P. tokes) prosecuted; Mr. Ewens defended. Mr. Stokes said the defendant" was charged inder the Merchant Shipping Amendment Act with having made a false declaration before Cap tain Hastings with reference to the ownership of the British steamer Taion.

Mr. Stokes—That he is not the owner. Mr. Ewens-This Court has no jurisdiction to-try a property case. You must bring a civilotion first and prove that he is not the owner. Mr. Stokes-That is contrary to the usual practice, which is to bring the criminal charge irst and the civil case afterwards. Mr. Ewens -That is only in the case of fraud. This Court has no jurisdiction to try a question

Mr. Stokes-This is not a question as to who s the real owner; that is only an incident which arises in the case. The charge is that the i-fendant has made a false declaration. His Worship said he thought Mr. Stokes was intitled to prove that.

Commander Hastings, Acting Harbour Master, Mr. H. McCallum, Secretary. id—By virtue of my appointment, I am Registrar of Shipping. The declaration handed to me was declared before me on the 16th April b Chan U Fai, the defendant. On the 23rd April owing to facts that came to my knowledge I.had an interview with him. He made a statement to me. Mr. Lockhart was present and interpretedit. Chan U Fai was declared when he made that statement. I wrote it down. -Mr. Stokes read the statement in which d endant said that the ship was owned by fiv members of the Wing Tai Hong. He had stated before the Harbour Master that he owner thirty-two sixty-fourths. Cross-examined-Nothing that I heard was id by the Harbour Master to induce him to make a statement. He was simply asked to say what he knew about it. I put no questions myself. I simply interpreted.

Chan Wan Chi-I am one of the masters of the Kwan Ip Loong shop, a machine and boat huilding shop. I have an outry in my books headed Wing Tal. The entries commence on 18th September, 1889. My interest was $2,000 odd. The shares got by other parties through me amounted to $30,000, but my own interest was limited to $2,000. I told Mr. Osmund that I had my self an interest of $10,000. At that time shares I held for others, amounted to $10,000. The time between which I held $10,000 worth of shares and I increased that holding to $30.00 would be about a year. THE DISPOSAL OF THE DEAD. A letter from the Hon. Secretary of the Hongkong Branch of the British Medical Association was laid on the table. The letter, stated that with reference to the Board's letter of the 4th April touching the exhumation of Chinese bodies, the matter had been laid before a meeting of the Branch and carefully discussed Having carefully weighed the various points which have to be taken into consideration with reference to the probable period after which human remains may be regarded as absolutely free from danger to the living community, the members of the Brauch are of opinion that from 15 to 20 years should elapse before any grave is disturbed. Exhumation of the bodies of persons dying from cholera, small-pox, or other contazious diseases should not in their opinion be permitted at all. The Branch further earnestly invited the attention of the Sanitary Board to the necessity of considering whother some other efficient means cannot be adopted for disposing of the Chinese dead than by burying them on this Island. The Chinese population is noreasing every year and more of the ground is being reserved for building purposes and as water collecting areas, so that if the rule is observed of allowing 15 to 20 years to elapse before again making use of the old graves the space available as cemeteries will soon be exhansted. The Branch, while seeing the very great difficulties surrounding the question, felt none the less that it was likely ultimately to become a serious one and that it should not be left out of sight in considering any questions relating to the subject of graveyerds in the A minute on the letter by Mr. Francis sug-

THE STRAITS LABOUR COMMISSION

The Report of the Labour Commission is that the Government of the Straits Settlements must depart from its policy of inaction, and must notively assist in obtaining foreign labour. Although it may not say so plainly, yet the Report elientially condemus the theory which has hitherto prevailed that, in the matter of imsniggation generally, and Chinese immigration rades from custody, which it was feared would particularly, the Straits Government shall led to a disturbance, took place to-day and be content only to look on. The Report re bamends that the Straits Government shall seek to influence the Government of China, that it shall seek permission to establish Emigration Agents and Emigration depote in Chinese Ports and that, while it may still allow play for the individual recruiter or tout who shall bring the Chiraman to the Government depôt, yet, immediately after he comes to the Government depot, his future movements shall be controlled by the Government. In the same spirit; it is urged that a Straits Inspector-General of Immigration shall be appointed in India and it is suggested that he might with advantage be the head of the Straits Indian Immigration Department. SILK CULTURE IN SIAM.

The United States Consul General at Bangkok, in his last report to the State Department at Washington has the following with regard to silk culture in Slam ---I he manufacture of silk in Siam is confined entirely to the Logs villages scattered throughout all communications which had passed between the country, and to the Cambodians residing in the south-eastern provinces bordering on Cam: garding the expedition to Manipur, would b bolis. The Siamese proper know nothing of rearing the silk worm, an art which has been trans-

m tted to the Loas through successive generations. The centres of silk productions in Siamare Korat, on ancient walled city, 130 miles north-east of Bingkok, and Battimbong, 200 miles to the south-east. Beautiful cloths, interfeven with gold and silver thread, are woven at Chiengmai. and a quantity of raw silk is annually exported from Hluang Prabang, on the Me-keng river, to Chiengmai, one of the principal Laos States bordering on Burmah. The raw silk exported ed with the fluer grades of India silksand woven into the better qualities of piece-goods.

The industry is confined solely to the women. who cultivate the mulberry tree and weave the silk in searves and panounge. The silk worin is rared in the wet sesson when the tree is in full bined in the dry season. As the silk is intended for their own use, they are careless in the rearing of the worm, and their rude instruments On New YORK .make the reeled silk of varying size andstrongth.
